As a reminder, actual loan limits for certain high-cost areas, as determined by FHFA, may be lower than the maximum high-cost area limit. When originating High-Balance or Super Conforming mortgages, you must check the loan limits for the specific county where the property is located. There are no high-cost areas in Alaska.

Please note that the loan limit changes are for conforming loans only. Changes to FHA, VA and USDA loan limits will be announced in a separate communication.

Fannie Mae's Desktop Underwriter

The 2027 loan limits will be applied to Desktop Underwriter (DU) loan submitted (or resubmitted) on or after the weekend of December 5, 2026. Loans that are underwritten through DU prior to December 5, that receive an Ineligible recommendation due only to exceeding the 2026 loan limit are allowed. The loan does not have to be resubmitted to DU if the loan amount complies with the applicable 2027 conforming loan limit. However, you may want to resubmit after the new loan limits are implemented in DU to potentially obtain more streamlined collateral valuation options.

Freddie Mac Loan Product Advisor

The 2027 loan limits will be applied to Loan Product Advisor (LPA) loan submitted (or resubmitted) on or after December 7, 2026. Loans that are underwritten through LPA prior to December 7 that receive an Ineligible recommendation due only to exceeding the 2026 loan limit are allowed. The loan does not have to be resubmitted to LPA if the loan amount complies with the applicable 2027 conforming loan limit. However, you may want to resubmit after the new loan limits are implemented in LPA to potentially obtain more streamlined collateral valuation options.
